

Kevin Cornett

Kevin began dancing when he was in college. He took it as his PE credit and fell in love with it. Within two years, he joined a competition dance team and compete in the Fun Country and UCWDC dance circuits. Later on, he found a regular dance partner and started training for couples competition. In 2001, they took 4th in Div 4 at the UCWDC Worlds Dance Competition and 4th in Regional Dance with their Night Club Twostep.

Kevin has taught in dancehalls and clubs and has taught private lessons for most of his career. In 2010, he was hired at Care to Dance dance studio in Wichita, Ks and was their primary country instructor. He also taught ballroom, latin and swing. While at the studio, he was both a judge and pro for the studios, Dancing with the Local Stars events that took place twice a year. He danced with the Wichita Grand Opera, taught private group lesson, and helped teach classes at Wichita State University. Kevin also got elected to be the instructor for Wichita West Coast Swing dance group.

Kevin has gotten the opportunity to work with some of the top names in country and swing, such as Robert Royston, Michael Kielbasa, Beatta Howe, Ronne Debenedetta and Rowdy DuFrene just to name a few. He has competed in teams, line dance, and couples divisions IV, III and II in both UCWDC and ACDA dance circuits.

Kevin moved to Houston, Tx in 2014 and was the primary couples instructor for Neon Boots Dancehall and Saloon until Aug 2015 when he moved to Loveland Co.
