

Lee Fox (Couples, Line, Team, Pattern and IAGLCWDC Competition Director)

Lee Fox is originally from Georgia and moved to Florida in 1986. He is the Competition Director and former Director of Dance for the International Association of Gay/Lesbian Country Western Dance Clubs (IAGLCWDC). He has been teaching Ballroom, Latin, and Disco since 1978, and Country/Western since 1991. A former ballroom competitor, he has judged several competitions in the United States. He and his ballroom partner, Scott, competed in ballroom at the Gay Games in Amsterdam in 1998 and the Gay Games in Australia in 2002 making the finals both times. He is a member of Southern Country South Florida and has served as the choreographer/instructor for the Dream Team for six years and the SunDancers for seven years. He and his country partner, Chris, were the first Championship winners in the IAGLCWDC Couples Competition in 1998 and have performed at many hoedowns and fundraisers. He is also one of the original members of Crossfire, overall champions of the 2005 IAGLCWDC Dance Teams Championships