

Mein Samala

Mein is excited to be teaching at the IAGLCWDC Hoedown for the first time. His workshop series "WCS Bootcamp" will be sure to get you started on the right (or left) foot, and drill you on the basics of WCS lead and follow. He has been teaching more west coast swing and two-step but started out teaching salsa more than 10 years ago. He is also part of the west coast swing team DC RolePlay — don't forget to catch their performance on Saturday, and then get you some WCS Bootcamp.
