

Rob Ollander-Krane

Rob grew up hating country music until one day a few years ago, he walked into a gay bar and saw a group of men doing the two-step. Country music and two-stepping have been his obsession ever since ... and he has the cowboy drag to prove it. Rob joins us from San Francisco where he has been dancing at the Sundance Saloon every Thursday and Sunday evening for the last nine years. He teaches at Sundance, Digs in Palm Springs and at the Emerald City Hoedown in Seattle.
